Cup disruption shows PSL is a meek little lamb

SHEMOZZLE!

According to people in the know, there now is a real likelihood that the Philips League will be expanded to 16 teams next year. What surprises me is that there are still clubs willing to join the league!

In view of the type of shemozzle over which the PSL has become notorious, it seems to me that such clubs have a death wish.

South Melbourne president Sam Papavas said in "The Age" on April 26, most PSL clubs would be better off back in their respective State League.

I have no hesitation in saying that I am downright jealous of Sydney Olympic which is having a great season and drawing big crowds since being relegated to the NSW State League at the end of last season.

Get off Rudi's back says Scheinflug

Marconi coach Les Scheinflug has retaliated strongly against criticism of the national team and its boss Rudi Gutendorf.

Scheinflug was captain of Australia's 1965 World Cup team and assistant coach of the successful 1974 side that reached the finals in West Germany.

He and Victorian Tony Boggi are now assistants to Rudi Gutendorf, who is in West Germany on holidays.

Scheinflug was angry over an article by former Socceroo goalkeeper Jack Reilly in last week's "Soccer Action."

Reilly criticised Gutendorf, claimed the present team was at least two goals inferior to the 1974 side and predicted Australia would not qualify for the 1982 finals in Spain.

"In my opinion, the article was in bad taste," Scheinflug said. "Reilly was a coach as well. I'm sure he would not have enjoyed being attacked in such a way."

Scheinflug added: "We have a very young side which is getting better and better. It's the duty of Reilly and all the other knockers to get behind the team and the national coach instead of putting them down."

"These people make their bread and butter from the game, yet instead of trying to help they're only being destructive."

"Some of the people doing the attacking maybe had their pride hurt in the past. That includes some of the officials Rudi has stepped on in his march forward. But we all have to swallow our pride sometimes. As long as the man is doing everything in his power to succeed, he deserves our support."

Scheinflug described Gutendorf as "a complete professional" who demands dedication, discipline and sacrifice from his players.

"He wants men who will go through blood, sweat and pain for the full 90 minutes, not players who are show ponies for 45 minutes and then bludge on their team mates."

"He wants complete sportsmen who will look after their health, who won't go sneaking off to clubs to get drunk and who will accept nothing but the best from themselves and their team mates."

"In the past, our players were cuddled and pampered."

"They had their cake and the cream as well. Under Gutendorf they have to work damn hard for the cake. As the cream he offers a place in the World Cup finals in Spain."

"There is a tendency for players in this country to become sloppy, lazy and complacent. Rudi is pushing them to limits to which they have never been."

The PSL is no more than a meek little lamb which can raise only the faintest bleat in its own defence. It can be pushed around by the States and the ASF no matter what the cost, as was demonstrated yet again in the reshuffling of the Philips Cup second round at the weekend.

Unbelievable is the word that best describes what went on.

For those of you who might be thinking — ho hum, here he goes again — let me state emphatically that I am not trying to be deliberately controversial or provocative. I merely am stating facts. I am expressing indignation on behalf of all the clubs and all the club officials who feel the same way I feel.

Three Philips Cup games were postponed — Heidelberg v. South Melbourne, Canberra v. Makedonia and Adelaide City v. Green Gully Ajax.

The Heidelberg game became a league match because the league match was called off on account of rain in the previous week.

The other two games were postponed. Why? Because the Victorian Soccer Federation demanded it! Apparently rain had affected its State League programme, and it wanted to catch up.

Yet for three weeks, Adelaide City had been promoting its Cup match against Ajax, using as a lever that we were trying to persuade Justin Fashanu to stay for that one match.

We got an incredible amount of publicity out of it but suddenly a telegram arrives from ASF headquarters saying quite blandly that our game and two others were postponed to a date to be fixed.

Is the ASF aware that we played our last home match on June 15 and that our next home match is not due until July 13, against Canberra (maybe)? In other words, Adelaide City is asked to go four weeks without a home match, and without income.

The clubs are doing everything in their power to help promote the game and to save themselves financially. Yet at every turn they run into obstruction.

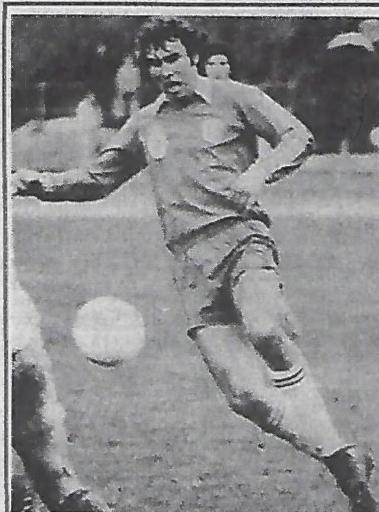

The Marconi match programme, for instance, lists all second round Cup fixtures with grounds and kick-off times. Various newspapers carried the same information.

Then the ASF turns the whole programme upside down, with little or no regard to the clubs or to the fans, many of whom probably turned up to find no game.

The St. George v. Blacktown match for example, was scheduled for Barton Park but suddenly it was switched to Gabbie Stadium with no explanation. Apparently • Branko Buljevic always has been a big game specialist, so it was fitting that he scored both goals in South Melbourne Hellenes' 2-1 victory over Heidelberg United on Sunday. He now has scored eight goals in the nine games between the two clubs since the PSL started in 1977 — six for Heidelberg and two for Hellenes, which he joined during the off season. The match was watched by about 15,000 people — 4550 more than the total attendance at the six Victorian Football Association matches played in Melbourne and 4400 more than the ACT v. Victoria Interstate Australian Rules match in Canberra. Picture by LES SHOR-ROCK.

Johan Verweij (Brisbane Lions) and Roy Drinkwater (Newcastle KB United) were approached by New Zealand coach John Adshead but both declared themselves unavailable.

Verweij is one of four members of the team which beat Australia in Auckland last season not in Adshead's squad.

Former captain Tony Sibley and sweeper Adrian Elrick both dropped out of contention after declining their lack of faith in Adshead's ability while veteran striker Keith Nelson's poor current form has cost him his place.

Only five uncapped players have gained selection, including three from this season's surprise packet, Gisborne City, thus illustrating the influence of newly-appointed team manager Keith Fallon, who coaches Gisborne City.

CHILE TOUR OFF, CHINA INSTEAD?

The Chile tour cancelled and substituted by the national team of China — that's my tip.

I could be wrong, but I've a feeling that the tour by Chile is doomed because the ASFA will not take the risk of stirring up trouble with the unions over the proposed visit.

And to fill the gap it would not surprise me if the Chinese team arrives instead.

China was invited to tour Australia this year by ASFA vice-president Vic Tuting while the Socceros were in China last year.

The key to the situation lies in Zurich with ASFA president Sir Arthur George who is attending a FIFA executive conference.

Sir Arthur will talk with the officials of Chile and China before making a final decision on the August tour.

It is my opinion that if China is available during this period, then the Chilean visit will be shelved.

Sir Arthur will supply the answer to this poser when he arrives back in Sydney tomorrow night (Thursday).

It also has been suggested in

some circles that the American national team will visit in January.

To me, this is rather remarkable as this tour is being pushed by a source not connected with the ASFA.

Which makes me wonder who really is running soccer in Australia.

If the Americans come here is that such a tour would bring big sponsorship.

Well, if this is a reason for our national side to be sacrificed — and events in the north have proved this during a January tour — we should forget all about trying to qualify for Spain and the 1982 World Cup finals.

The Phillips Cup could be one of the most glamorous competitions in Australian soccer.

That is, if it was promoted properly and given the importance it deserves.

However, at present, it is being hampered by apathy and bad administration of the series.

Such actions are a slap in the face to Phillips, an important sponsor of soccer in Australia.

Clubs, states and in fact everybody concerned should be pulled into line and the Phillips Cup should be given the status it deserves.

On the subject of the Phillips Cup I would like to point out to the PSL administrators that some homework should be done before scheduling games.

Take the clash at Lambert Park for instance, between ASFA and Sydney.

What it should have been taken into consideration on organising this fixture was that there are no floodlights at Lambert Park.

Because of this and with extra time on the cards, the kick-off should have been scheduled for 2.30 instead of the usual 3 pm.

Such a scheduling would have allowed the extra-time to be played in good light.

As it was, the game finished in darkness and could easily have been postponed.

Neeskens to visit Australia

Johan Neeskens will visit and perhaps play in Australia in November.

And he may bring New York Cosmos team-mates Wim Rijssbergen, Hubert Birkenmeier and Vladislav Bogicevic with him.

South Melbourne Hellas is interested in fielding a team against an all-star line-up made up of the Cosmos players and local stars like Roberto Vieri, Manocas, Jim Hermiston etc.

Neeskens' visit is being arranged by a friend of his, John Pryde, a Victorian coach who

Hellas no to Conn

John Pryde last week acted as agent for former Scottish international Alfie Conn (pictured) whom he met in the U.S.

Pryde offered Conn to South Melbourne Hellas but coach John Margaritis said he did not want to change his winning team.

However, Margaritis is interested in Conn for next season.

Conn is one of the few players to have served both Celtic and Rangers.

He also played in England for Tottenham Hotspur.

More recently, he has been with the San Jose Earthquakes.

He was delighted during his recent trip to be able to supervise two 20-minute coaching sessions for the Cosmos stars. He went through a series of set plays with Chinaglia, Beckenbauer, Carlos Alberto, Neeskens, et al.

Pryde put an end to rumors that Beckenbauer would leave to go to Hamburg.

In fact, Beckenbauer has just extended his Cosmos contract for 18 months and $1.5 million, Pryde said.

But the size of the Cosmos squad apparently is causing problems.

"They have 26 senior players which means most of them aren't able to play," he said.

Nels Moraes, who starred during the Australian tour, hasn't been in the team since.

Oscar, the Brazilian international centre half, can't get into the team because his place is held by American youngster Jeff Durgan, and under NASL rules, each team must include at least three local players.

Seninho doesn't get a game regularly, even though he starred on the wing against Victoria.

Now Cosmos have bought Francois van der Elst from Australia and the Portuguese youth World Cup star, Julio Cesar Romero, which makes competition for places even keener. — LAURIE SCHWAB

All I want is a fair chance

By COL BENNETT

This year with Brisbane Lions, which is my fourth with the club, I am playing as well as I ever have during my career.

I have had to look at my game very hard since Rudi Gutendorf arrived in Australia as I tried to find an answer to my omission from the national team.

I would have thought the team would be picked on players' performances over the season and not one or two matches. This is why he has had so many players. I believe you should have to fight very hard to make the national team. I had to wait four years for my chance, and when it came, I worked twice as hard to stay there for the next four years.

My chances of getting back in again, in my opinion, depend on playing consistently well and being with one of the top four teams. I believe both of these situations exist at the moment. It is a great honor to play for the country in which you were born and my two greatest moments were captaining the Socceroos against Greece and scoring a goal in the World Cup elimination match against Hong Kong.

I don't think Rudi Gutendorf has given me a fair chance, as on each of three occasions he has called on me, he sat me on the bench.

One player whom I particularly respect and believe should still be in the national team is Peter Wilson.

Of my 59 games for Australia, I would say 55 of these were with Wilson behind me. I learned a great deal about his leadership qualities on and off the field and it's these attributes, along with my own, that I am trying to maintain at Lions. My game is based on consistency and the urge to play even better in every game. After each match I think about my performance and try to remember my mistakes, thereby setting the target of working hard to eliminate them the next week.

If you took a poll of the top players around the world I think you'd find that 95 per cent of them would have a very high rating in regard to consistency.

To me this is what makes a great player, above an average player.

Over the four years of PSL soccer and even before that during two years with APIA and five years with Sutherland, I have strived to maintain this level of consistency.

My first coach at Sutherland was Mike Johnson, who with his tremendous enthusiasm, helped me a great deal over the years that were to follow.

In two seasons with APIA, '75 and '76, I was privileged to play with a great team of players, which, when the PSL commenced, split up due to the club deciding not to enter the competition. Playing at centre half all my career I have found that a sound defence, especially in the middle, will always be a good basis around which a team can work.

There are no second chances in this position so everything has to be done with a minimum of fuss.

Most important is the total concentration and determination needed to win those high balls and ground balls.

I feel that a top player is one who performs consistently, whether he is with a good side or one lower placed. If in the latter, he has to work twice as hard at his game.

I feel that being a captain of side, especially a national team, makes it essential that you should always have the total respect of all players, just as all the players should have the same respect for the coach.

A good captain will always lead by example and set the standard for his team. This season, as captain of Lions, I am aiming at this goal and am fortunate to have a side that is with me all the way.

During my 11 years of first team football, my fitness has never been in question. From more than 350 matches, I have missed only two and both times that resulted from an accident at work.

I obviously rate fitness as a very important factor in every player's game. The standard of soccer in Australia definitely has improved since the start of the PSL. There are no easy teams nor are there any easy opponents.

I feel this is Brisbane Lions' year for a place in the top four as we have a good blend of youth, experience, and again, consistency to make it.

We have a squad which is giving 100 per cent every week, whereas in previous seasons I felt we tended to carry some players.

Lions have a tremendous sporting complex at Richlands and are still working at improving their fine fields.

All that is needed in Brisbane in fact all other States is greater media coverage, including soccer segments on TV and more spread in the newspapers.

Only then will we attract more support.

To conclude, I know it will be hard to get back into favor with Rudi Gutendorf, but you can be sure I will strive harder every week. If I can keep my consistency going, I know I must rate a chance.

Full credit must go to the players for doing all that was asked of them by their captain John

The only referee to receive a trophy was

Don Myatt, clearly indicating the high standards set by the Latrobe Valley Referees' Branch.

The squad was: John Whiting, (Pegasus),

The squad was formed in response to an invitation from the Dutch club Roda in Deventer.

Title at stake in night game

Arthur McMillan

The fate of the two major contenders for the 1980 PSL championship, Heidelberg United and Sydney City could be decided by their clash at Olympic Park on Saturday night (7.30 pm).

Heidelberg player-coach Jimmy Rooney said earlier this year that his side would win the championship, becoming the first Melbourne team to do so, but Rooney's confident prediction comes up against its stiffest threat when the classy Sliders grace Olympic Park with the possession football that is their hallmark.

In Ken Boden, the Sliders have one of the best ball players in the PSL and Murray Barnes must be brimful of confidence after his recent brilliant display for Australia against Northern Ireland.

Joe Watson and Hilton Silva, the flanking midfielders, confront two steady and sometimes brilliant full backs in Heidelberg's Jim Tansey and Arthur McMillan.

With Watson and Silva pushing forward in support of their forwards and Tansey and McMillan charging upfield whenever Heidelberg gains possession the play should swing from end to end with a rapidity that should severely test the stamina and organisation of both sets of defenders.

By CRAIG MACKENZIE

On paper it looks like Jamie Paton and Gary Cole pose the greatest threat to the Sliders back four but the late runs into the penalty area from Jim Bell and Theo Semelidis could pose bigger problems for the Sliders.

Campbell has a ferocious shot and Semelidis can crack a ball also, so the Sliders' keeper — either stand-in Tony Pezzano or regular Todd Clarke — should be in for an acrobatic day if a clean sheet is to be maintained.

In midfield Rooney and Sliders stalwart John Stevenson should turn on a great show for the huge crowd and their contest should encompass all the finer points of midfield playmaking — fine reading of the play, brilliant vision and excellent ball disposal.

Hedelberg sweeper John Yzendoorn will have to be at his best, constantly on the alert to rush out wide and cover his fellow defenders.

Rooney's joint player-coach, Paddy Bannon, will most likely look after Mark Trenter and, as Trenter will find out, Bannon's experience and guile will see him come out on top in most aerial duels.

Bannon is one of the inspirations of Heidelberg and he must be like a part of the clubroom furniture now that he has served the club so faithfully for six years.

Trenter may not care for Bannon's close attention and the former Newcastle striker may be in for a dismal day against the silver-haired stalwart.

Heidelberg should prove too well organised at the back for the Sliders' raids to prove effective but Sliders player-coach Eddie Thomson may not be able to boast of such fine organisation when Paton comes off a defender, flicks on to Cole, and starts the now famous charge to goal.

Gary Cole is undoubtedly one of the most colourful characters in Australian soccer and his electrifying bursts are one of the main treats for the Australian soccer public.

Heidelberg can win this crucial encounter and go on to claim the championship but the Sliders, labelled by "Soccer Action" scribe Tom Anderson as the Liverpool of Australian soccer, will take some beating before they hand over their mantle as the best side in the land.

Murray Barnes

Campbell can spark Hellas win

If South Melbourne Hellas is to maintain its drive towards the top is must convincingly defeat West Adelaide at Middle Park this weekend.

Wests can do an enormous favour for the status of South Australian soccer by beating Hellas and allowing Adelaide City the opportunity of firmly entrenching itself in the top four.

Wests' coach Gerry Chaldi took off John Kosmina in the game against Marconi two weeks ago but the former Soccerco star must be of full value for 90 minutes if the South Australian are to extend Hellas to its limited.

Marconi won that match 2-1 but required a Gary Byrne penalty to do so and for 20 minutes before that the 80th minute penalty West Adelaide matched the classy Sydney outfit stride for stride and had chances to take the lead.

Hellas cannot allow Wests such latitude.

This game is crucial for the Melbourne-based side and coach John Margaritis will not need to emphasise the importance of Marconi's and Adelaide City's challenges for top four places.

Led by the strong defence of Vince Bannon, Alan Davidson and central defenders Arthur Zanthopoulos and Bertie Lutton, Hellas should shut out Wests completely and rely on the dynamic George Campbell to create openings up front that should see Alan Evans and Duncan Cummings strike effectively.

With Branko Buljevic creating havoc wide on the left, Wests' defence, led by Zoran Maricic and Vic Bozanic, should get enough opportunity to earn its pay while Australian keeper Martyn Crook must be in top form to curb the Hellas scoring threat.

Hellas has too much to lose by failing to perform at its best and it should show its Greek neighbours from Adelaide why this Melbourne team which long promised so much and gave so little has at last started to realise its potential and satisfy the demands of its fervent followers.

Adelaide City return home after a month away games and will do well to Canberra to maintain the momentum of its drive up the table.

City coach Ray Basic will look to front runners John Nyskohus and Colin Barnes to provide the breakthrough that the home team will strive for.

If the threat of Sebastian Giampaolo and Tony Brennan, who seems to have finally found his touch, can be stifled, then City will have gone a long way towards winning.

If Agoston Muniz and John Perlin can match the endeavour and hard running of Canberra midfield Isaac Farrell, the home side can take both points and add credibility to its efforts to establish itself as a definite top four favourite.

Other winners of the weekend's games appear to be Newcastle, Marconi, St. George and Brisbane Lions.

Marconi should add to the mounting won of APIA super-premo Willie Wallace and regain some breathing space for coach Les Scheinfeld in the process.

Lions after extra time

BRISBANE LIONS 4
MT. GRAVATT 2

Scores: BL: Bennett 19th, Wilson 65th, McNaughton 92nd and 100th; Mt. Gravatt: E. Thompson 67th, Reid 84th. Ground: Perry Park. Crowd: abt. 500. Referee: P. Rampey 9. Captains: Hermitson (BL), Ferguson (Mt.G.).

LIONS: Scanlan 8, Ontong 7, Hermitson 8, Bennett 8, Wilson 8, Lindsey 7, Hogg 7, McNaughton 8, Millman 6, Daunt 5 (replaced by McGregor 45th, who was replaced by Verwel 105th).

MT. GRAVATT: Davis 5, Clark 7 (Hudson, 63rd), E. Thompson 8, Costa 8, Corcoran 7, Ferguson 8, P. Thompson 8, Tredinnick 5 (Field 71st), Bohan 8.

Brisbane Lions were pushed to the limit in their second round Philips Cup clash with Queensland State League leader Mt. Gravatt, going into extra time before winning 4-2 at Perry Park.

Mt. Gravatt put plenty of effort into their first half performance, yet found themselves down a goal to the most unlikely of goal-scorers.

Steven Hogg whipped over a corner from the right and Col Bennett headed goalwards. After some misunderstanding between fullback Steve Clark and keeper Mark Davis, the ball hit the back of the net.

Lions started to find a couple of gaps in the rugged Mt. Gravatt backline early in the first half and centre forward Mark McNaughton had a shot cleared off the line by desperate Mt. Gravatt centre half, Dave Costa.

Mt. Gravatt sacrificed full back Clark to bring on an attacker, Brian Hudson, but the move did not have a chance to produce a result, when Lions went 2-0 in the 55th minute through a bad goalkeeping error.

Hogg took a free kick just outside the area after being brought down by Costa and he slipped the ball back to full back Graham Wilson.

The youngster cracked it well towards the far corner and Costa, who had collected easily, dived over the ball to provide Lions with an early gift.

But only two minutes later, Mt. Gravatt pulled a goal back when referee Peter Rampey awarded a penalty for pushing following a corner and Mt. Gravatt skipper Eric Thompson made no mistake.

Mt. Gravatt's young striker, Ian Head, had an outstanding game and earlier had produced a great diving save of a scorching first timer.

Wilson almost gave Lions a heart attack when he passed back in the area but skinned a shot on top of the bar as Mt. Gravatt really started to boil.

The undefeated State League team switched the ball around impressively and there were definite signs of panic in the Lions backline, which normally has little trouble in the PSL.

Scanlan made another great save of a Phil Thompson shot, and then came the goal which pushed the match into extra time.

Striker John Reid, who Lions sold to Mt. Gravatt for $1500 during the week, capped another fine flowing move by the underdogs, when he scored a solid shot into the right hand corner past the diving Scanlan.

In the 39th minute Marconi finally took advantage of those chances when teenage midfielder Peter Raskopoulos burst into the penalty area from a Jankovic pass to convert from only seven metres. Marconi went to the half time break with a 2-1 advantage but within five minutes of the resumption had extended that lead.

Raskopoulos again pushed into the penalty area to score from another Jankovic pass.

While Marconi had few answers to the visitors' wave of attacks.

In the 39th minute of the second half national striker Mark Jankovic had an opportunity from a corner which was brilliantly saved by Newcastle goalkeeper Phil Dando.

Twice in the final three minutes, Newcastle looked capable of retrieving the deficit.

This goal was made by Ken Boden who lost his shadow Jim Dempsey and cut through the Leichhardt defence like a knife through butter before setting up the chance for Barnes.

Dempsey did justice a good job on Boden but paid dearly for his lapse in concentration when he allowed Boden to escape his clutches in the 95th minute.

The performance by Leichhardt in this one certainly made the look a much better team than their PSL position indicates.

However coach Wallace will have to get them playing for 90 minutes and not just 45.

Billy Pirie should be back on duty next week and that will help their striking department.

However in young Bobby Drews, they have a striker who shows a great deal of potential and a youngster with a future — providing he works hard on his ball skills in training.

As for City — well, after a slow start they slipped into gear in the second half and once again showed what a powerful team they are when they come forward on the attack.

No chance of such lunacy in Rugby or 'Rules someone found out the Saints had been playing too many matches at home, and it was fairer to give Blacktown a home fixture. But what about the advertising St. George had done for the match?

Similarly, Canberra City advertised and promoted its scheduled Cup game against Preston Makedonia. That money was wasted completely.

Let's go back a few weeks and recall the schemozzle over the Newcastle v. South Melbourne match in Newcastle. With the minimum amount of notice, Newcastle was told that the game was off as South Melbourne now had a third player required for national team duty.

That player was Steve Blair, who was to play in a curtain-raiser between youth teams. However, Blair was not in South Melbourne's senior team, so his absence would have made no difference.

In an effort to salvage the league match, I understand an offer was made to include three Newcastle players in the national team training camp to even things out, as it were. I stand to be corrected on this rumor and I'd be glad to hear confirmation or otherwise.

Anyway, the game was postponed and as a result Newcastle missed out on the healthy home gate it had been counting on. The postponement was a severe financial blow to the club.

What power does the PSL have over its own affairs?

What power do the poor clubs have — the clubs who are scraping and scrounging to make ends meet from week to week?

Newcastle had to go for many weeks without a match at home. How can clubs pay their bills in such a situation? If things are allowed to get out of hand to such an extent this year, I hate to think what will happen next year, during the world youth championships and the World Cup qualifying programme.

Is the ASF aware of how much it costs to run a team for only one week without a home game? Players have to be paid and so do coaches, physiotherapists and gear stewards.

We struggle in the normal cycle of one home game every two weeks. When that is interrupted by a period of five or six weeks without gate income, things get desperate. The PSL clubs are fighting for their lives, make no mistake.

Many rely on individuals putting their hands in their pockets to pay players' wages. Some have had to take loans to bridge difficult times, relying on income from the next home match to repay that loan. When that home game is postponed (to a "date to be fixed", as they say), that loan cannot be repaid as agreed.

The Philips League was the greatest innovation since soccer began in this country 100 years ago but if it continues like this, my prediction is that it won't remain sound much longer.

However, I am a great believer in top men and the power they have and I think the league's new chairman, Frank Lowy, can do something to rectify the situation. If he doesn't, I and most other club people will be extremely disappointed.

Everything in Australian soccer is presently being directed at promoting the national team but wouldn't it be pertinent to ask where the Socceroo players come from?

If State Federations are permitted to force cancellation of PSL games, isn't it also pertinent to ask which clubs supply the bulk of State team players?

The answer to both questions is that representative players come in the main from PSL clubs, yet those clubs are given scant consideration.

What do we look like in the eyes of other codes when such drastic changes are made regularly to our match programme? Nothing short of idiots!

Can you imagine such lunacy happening in the other codes Australian Rules or Rugby League? No chance. They plan their programme a year in advance and there's no way that those fixtures are allowed to be changed. It would be sacrilege.

Similarly, can you imagine Australian Rules or Rugby games being called off because of the weather? Such a suggestion in those codes would be met by hysterical laughter.

In Spain games cannot be called off under any circumstances. In West Germany, Yugoslavia, England and elsewhere in Europe, they scrape aside some of the deep snow or try to soak up some of the torrential rainwater but the games go ahead. Only when ice covers the pitch are games called off in England and Scotland.

The West Germany v. Poland match in Frankfurt during the 1974 World Cup finals was played on a heavily waterlogged pitch. An absorbent roller was used to remove some of the water before the match.

Here, many matches that are called off because of rain could easily be played.

I wonder when the postponed Phillips Cup matches will finally be played. Perhaps as curtain-raisers to the World Cup matches next year. I wouldn't be surprised. While clubs are struggling financially and doing their best to attract the few soccer lovers — there aren't many left — they should not be dumped into such a mess.

The PSL is being unfairly treated. If the State Federations or the national team or the ASF were getting a similarly rough deal, I would speak out just as strongly.

The recent Justin Fashanu "roast" in Adelaide was an example of how the different sporting codes can get together in friendly co-operation.

Among those roasting Fashanu were Australian Rules personalities John Cuckworth, Daryl Hicks and Neville Roberts.

They, as well as radio personalities Ken Cunningham and Bob Francis were absolutely marvellous. They had a go at Justin and Justin gave as good as he got.

The night was one of the most memorable I have attended in the past decade and it did a lot to create friendship which after all, is what sport is all about.

The administration of the two sports should take the lead. There is a lot they can learn from each other.

West Germany's Sepp Maier guards his goal in torrential rain during the 1974 World Cup. Here, many games are called off needlessly in bad weather.

I would like to thank International Electrical and Furniture and Yalumba Wines, the two sponsors of the "roast". Their support helped make possible a night which will long be remembered by the sporting fraternity in Adelaide.

The arrival of Frank Arok from Yugoslavia must be of immense embarrassment to St George's likable coach Raul Blanco.

Apparently Arok, who coached the Saints during part of their golden age, has been flown here to help get the club out of relegation danger.

He's looked upon as a soccer version of Red Adair, come to blow out the fire.

Blanco remains.

Is he to take orders from Arok?

Is he to stand aside and watch while Arok takes training?

Arok is of course a top man in his field. But even the greatest of coaches can do little on a hurried visit with players he never has seen before.

Sure, Blanco failed to get success with the original lot of players he bought. But since then it has been reinforced by Peter Stone from APIA, Ernie Campbell from Sydney City and John Russell from Marconi.

Instead of undermining Blanco's authority by flying in a supposed miracle-worker, it seems to me the St George administration would have done better to back up Blanco as he strives for better things with his newly rebuilt team.

Or, if the club really is unhappy with Blanco, isn't it more honest to give him the golden handshake?

When Arok goes home, what then?

Three-quarters of team is set

"Some can't accept it. Some resent him for being a real German — and we know how a real German can be. However, they respect him for his discipline, his strictness and his thorough knowledge of the game."

Unlike Reilly, Scheinfled believes Australia's prospects of reaching Spain are better than ever — particularly since two teams instead of one will qualify from Asia-Oceania.

"The preparation of the players is on a par with most national teams in the world," he said.

"Team spirit is excellent and as the players spend more time together and play more games, the performance will improve as well. The tour of Europe will be valuable in this regard."

"Rudi probably will continue to try out one or two, or three or maybe 20 players because he's always on the lookout for men willing and able to give 100 per cent at all times — including trial games or even training games between A and B sides. However, he has at least three-quarters of the team that will contest the World Cup games."

"Every national coach is always wrong."

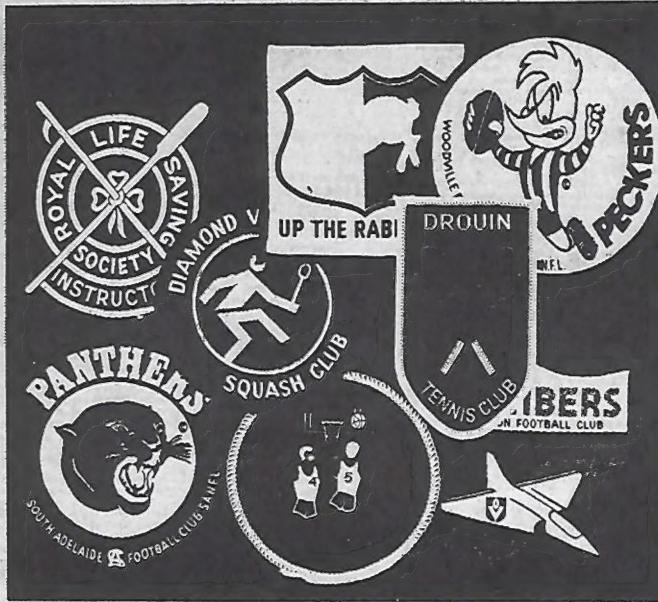

"There always is criticism of the selection, but the final test is whether he gets success and I believe Rudi's selections and his methods will bring us success. I feel very strongly that he is on the right track and that he deserves our support."

Scheinfled said Gundorf wants players with speed, aggression, simplicity and the will to attack.

"Australians are naturally aggressive," he said. "Rudi doesn't want 11 in defence. He wants men who will go forward." — LAURIE SCHWAB

Marwe makes Croatia click

SA State League

Billy Birch's Croatia has that title look about it.

After a poor start to the season, Croatia has won eight of its past nine matches and is sitting on top of the SA Rothmans League — two points clear of nearest challenger Polonia.

Its fortunes began to change when Birch, former West Adelaide star and coach (he took over from Mike Johnson in 1977), was appointed after the fourth round of the season.

SA details

Round 13 details:

Polonia 2 (Kozic, Kritikos)
Elizabeth 1 (Delfos).

Port Adelaide 1 (Toland)
Croatia 2 (Pope, Marwe).

Campbelltown 2 (Matrician, Barendrecht).

Parram Hills 3 (Bell, Amos, Gardiner) Victoria 3 (Durrant, Manolev, Boyle).

Beograd 1 (Evans) Azzurri 2 (Bojczuk, Michelon).

Since then it has won eight matches and lost only one — a tough 1-2 decision against Polonia.

The other reason for Croatia's resurgence is its captain, Robert Marwe.

Marwe, who transferred back to Croatia after two seasons with Adelaide City, is a far different player now.

Indeed, it would not be surprising to see him back in PSL ranks soon.

Marwe has scored eight goals this season and in the past two matches he has clinched victory for Croatia with decisive late goals.

If Marwe and his colleague can continue their present form, Croatia will win its first State league title.

Its biggest threat will come from Polonia and Para Hills which have kept in touch with some stirring performances in recent weeks.

The title could well be decided on the last day of the season in just five weeks when Croatia faces Para Hills away while Polonia is at home to another title contender, Campbelltown.

Meanwhile at the other end of the table, Enfield Victoria looks most likely to drop into the Second Division.

But significantly, it has picked up three points in the past two matches while the team above it, Beograd, last year's champion, has failed to pick up a point.

Beograd now is only four points clear and unless it stages a late revival it could be overtaken by Victoria.

$2.5 mil. man

Scottish international striker Ian Wallace has signed for European Cup holder Nottingham Forest in a deal which brought his old club converytly £250,000 sterling (about 2.5 million Aust dollars).

He cost Coventry 45,000 sterling (about 90,000 Aust dollars) when it recruited him from Scottish club Dumbarton almost four years ago. He has scored 57 goals for Coventry but became unsettled last season.

A late goal by substitute Jim Zeros enabled NSW League leader Sydney Olympic to scramble away from Hurstville Oval with a 1-0 victory over Arncliffe Scots.

The tight-marking, hard-tackling, Arncliffe defence contained Olympic's high scoring forward line before the interval and also found sufficient space to give the Olympic goalmouth some anxious moments.

Arncliffe's latest signing from Canberra, goalkeeper Steve Hoszowski, was in action early, making a superb save from a Bob Smith header but the nature of the play did not lend itself to attractive football or allow either side to build their attack with confidence.

Only Hussain Housseini, breaking repeatedly down the left side, found the time and space to provide a service to his central striker Andy Scott who was well marked by John Wignall and Bob Oldham.

After John Lee had hit the crossbar with a free kick in the 21st minute, Hoszowski again proved his worth with a brilliant save from a bullet-like header from Scott only four minutes later.

Rangers regained leader status in Division Two by beating Doncaster 3-0 while Morell defeated Port Melbourne 2-0 and relinquished the leadership by one goal on merit.

With the game in hand

Rangers are sitting pretty and look certain for promotion and for the title.

Frankston Pines crashed to a 2-0 loss to Prahran which now trails Pines and Fawkner by only two points so what seemed a simple choice of the two teams to go up to division two has now developed into a fierce contest with Coburg two points away from Prahran but holding a goal advantage.

Morwell slumped to its third successive defeat, this time to much-improved Sandringham City and Werribee Pines.

It was a fairly even affair with both sides creating until a bad clearance from Melbourne defender Liu allowed Heidelberg to capitalise and go ahead.

In the second half Melbourne took control for long periods of play but bad finishing proved its downfall.

Boszowski, a most promising young keeper, was on target after Heidelberg keeper Jeff Olver could only get a hand to a Melbourne corner.

Heidelberg's winner came after a long throw in went over the head of

Ajax set to win Maltese derby

Olympic Park No. 2 should come alive with the support of a large crowd drawn to the local Maltese derby between George Cross and Green Gully.

Ajax.

The worms have certainly turned, with the once proud George Cross now languishing near the bottom of the table and Gully challenging for a top four spot.

But memories die hard for the fervent Maltese supporters and many remember the glorious past of the Cross while Gully struggled to get out of the Metro League.

But the reality of the present points to a win for Gully and further disappointment for Archie Campbell's lads.

Cross newcomers Len Pollock may add more bite up front but the current form of Gully defenders John Patten and Jimmy Dunne should contain Cross's forward thrusts.

If Bill Morley can stop wasting the great service he gets from Bill Wosten and Willie Vassallo, Gully can run out clear winner in a fiercely-fought contest.

Makedonia faces fiercely competitive Croydon in what promises to be an aggressive, hard-hitting encounter at Connor Reserve.

With the top of the table so close, Makedonia cannot afford to slip up. Indeed, to win the championship Makedonia must overcome hurdles such as Croydon.

Makedonia undoubtedly is an exciting attacking outfit but the forward surge of the red and black-shirted attackers will be met head on by Steve McCombe and Alan Pongho.

With Combe's expected clash with George McMillan should keep the large crowd on its toes but the clash that appears to be the highlight of the game should occur when the dynamic Robert Cullen comes up against the tough, uncompromising play of Croydon's Charlie Murphy.

The sparks will fly when hard-running Culen gets into a one-on-one situation against Murphy.

If the consistent Croydon left back can contain the Macedonian star the visitors will be set for a point but Ljube Petrovski and Claude Lucchesi should provide the service for Culen that should see the Macedonian winger get on top of his opponent and set up decisive openings for his fellow front runners.

Makedonia should win the battle and resume league leadership on goal difference as the Juventus-Croatia clash has been postponed to 20 July.

Western Suburbs face Sunshine in the battle of the west and Suburbs have the chance to recover lost prestige by taking both points.

The Shiners should prove tough opposition for Jimmy Pyrgolios's side but provided Steve Carr and Kit Greechen can start to click together the home team can snatch both points.

Hakoah will not have it all its own way against Slavia at Middle Park on Saturday and the aerial confrontation between Hakoah striker Graham French and Slavia's aggressive keeper Elvio Pugliese should provide some goalmouth drama for the handful of spectators.

Slavia can grab a draw and keep alive its slim hopes of staying in the State League next year.

Altona and Frankston should share the points at Kincardin Reserve as Stu Cannel and Peter Lewis should have little trouble containing a Frankston attack bereft of an effective spearhead.

Our guest tipster this week is successful Makedonia coach Brian Edgley (pictured). Brian's selections with likely winners in capitals:

Hakoah v. Salvia (draw) at Middle Park, Saturday, 2.45 pm.

George Cross v. G.G.-Ajax (draw) at Olympic Park No. 2, Sunday, 3 pm.

ALTONA v. Frankston, Kim Reserve, Sunday, 3 pm.

MAKEDONIA v. Croydon at Connor Reserve, Sunday, 3 pm.

WESTERN SUBURBS v. Sunshine at Schintler Reserve, Sunday 3 pm.

Two crowd disturbances in two games is the record of Juventus fans after they vented their wrath at Croydon Park holding up proceedings for seven minutes last weekend.

Knowing that the onus for crowd control is on the home team it will be interesting to see whether Juve's fans react so angrily at Gilton Oval.

Juve coach Manny Poulaakis was bitterly upset about the refereeing of Tony Beauchamp.

"We will end up playing in front of empty terraces," said Poulaakis, "with such bad refereeing."

"Inconsistency and bad interpretation of the rules is killing the game."

The referee was the cause of the trouble at the Croydon game because it made the atmosphere electric.

"Too many teams have a win-all-or-nothing attitude and the referees seem continually allow late tracking," Poulaakis concluded.

Croydon coach Mark Hobson was elated with his side's performance and he emphasised the importance of team skill over and above individual skill.

Sunshine coach Ian Petherick resigned before the George Cross game last weekend due to personal reasons.

Petherick emphasised his decision had nothing to do with anyone in the club. He prefers to concentrate on taking care of the Victorian under-14 side preparing for the national championships in Canberra.

Petherick's successor, Jim McIntyre, has a hard task ahead in getting the best out of his players but Petherick is More brawls, Petherick quits, Mimis back?

Peter Blazby started to use long balls down the centre as Mitten and Gilder were playing well off each other and winning the territorial battles.

But Suburbs had a great chance in the 55th minute when Jim Kypritis crossed from the right and the ball fell to George Theocaridis who should have put Suburbs ahead but failed.

Five minutes later Croatian opened the scoring when Ante Blavir's clearance went to Ken Murphy who raced past Kypritis and prepared to cross.

Mitten had dragged two defenders with him to the near-post and Murphy crossed to the unmarked Gilder on the far post who controlled the ball well before beating Jim Daperis and blasting a fierce shot into the roof of the Suburbs' goal.

In the 64th minute Joe Trout was sent on his way by Keith Adams before unleashing a tremendous shot that Mitanidis did well to tip onto the post but Mitten had the ball in front of Croatia's second.

In the 73rd minute Suburbs hit back when Kit Brogan's high header from a kick found Cane who beat Gilder and headed over Blazby for a fine goal off the far post.

When John Daperis had to be carried off injured Suburbs were reduced to 10 men as they had made two substitutions previously.

The last 15 minutes of play resembled a shooting gallery at the Royal Show, with Mitanidis the target but the Suburbs' keeper had a fine game and the scoreline did not change.

CROYDON 3 (McCombe, Howarth, McKinley)

WESTERN SUBURBS 1 (Carr).

CROATIA 2 (Gilder, Mit-tin) 1 WESTERN SUBURBS 1 (Carr).

CROATIA: Blazby - Short, Gardiner, Kokosa, Blavir (sub, Trout), Andrews, Adams, Murphy - Gilder, Mitten.

WESTERN SUBURBS: Mitanidis - Kypritis, Gylkakalamos, Jaworski, Jim Daperis - Grecian, John Daperis (in, carried off 79th), J. Christodoulis (sub, Kupas 70th) - Kypritis (sub, Pataskos 70th), Trifunovic.

CROATIA: Keogh - McKinley, Pengho, McCombe, Murphy - Doornenbal, Smith, Brogan, Howarth, Kypritis.

JUVENITUS: Reilly - Curcio, Munro, Della Rocca, Tarquino - Nelson - Crino (Heavy half time), Simeone, Incalupato - Gilpin, McGuinness (in, sub Ristovski 70th).

Croydon drove home the importance of team skill when it convincingly defeated Juventus in a fiery affair at Croydon Park.

In his after-match comments Croydon coach Norm Hobson pointed out that individual skill had its place but only as part of team skill.

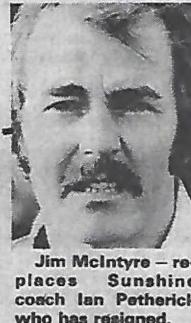

"After all," said Hobson, "it's the team who wins and always will be. My boys did everything asked of them. We put it together as a unit."

And put it together they did, as the Croydon lads opened at a cracking pace, hitting Juventus hard early and scoring two goals within the first six minutes.

Croydon's tactics of playing long, first-time balls out of defence and concentrating on knocking the ball about in Juventus' defensive in the second half, resulted in Gylkakalamos and Marian Jaworski being put under tremendous pressure and looking unsteady at times.

Kees Doornenbal floated the corner to the far post where Dave Brogan nodded down to Steve McCombe who was given time to turn before smacking the ball home from eight yards.

Jim McIntyre - replaces Sunshine coach Ian Petherick who has resigned.

Four minutes later Brogan's brilliant first-time ball caught Juve square at the back and Johnny Howarth who had come from deep, ran onto the ball before slotting it expertly past Jack Reilly in the Juve goal.

Two minutes later Juventus struck back and Fabio Incalupato, playing due to Tony Heery's late arrival at the match, found himself unmarked in the middle of the Croydon area and although Sean Keogh narrowed the angle the Victorian youth star tucked his chance away well.

The game became a hard hitting encounter from both on ball and defensive organisation saw most Juve attack breaking down on the edge of Croydon's area.

The second half again saw the home side defend well until the 73rd minute when Jim Wylie broke through and referee Ray Beazley awarded a penalty after the Croydon forward was fouled inside Juve's area.

This was the fuse that ignited the anger of the Juve fans and they invaded the pitch, holding up play for seven minutes.

Wylie took the penalty and scored but Beazley asked for the kick to be retaken as Juve's fans hurled stones at Wylie.

The second attempt missed and Juve took heart from this and attacked the Croydon goal which was guarded by a well organised defence.

The game died as a contest when Peter Loughnane broke out of Dumon Smith's pen and rifled in low drive. Reilly could not hold and Harry McKinley was rewarded for his magnificent supporting run from deep with an easy tap-in.

Croydon shunned my assessment of its lack of individual skill by proving the value of team play in a magnificent display of effort and organisation that gave it a well-deserved win over a Juventus side bitter about Beazley's refereeing.

SLAVIA 0 MAKEDONIA 1 (McMillan)

SLAVIA: Pugliese - Haupt, Lawson, Houston, Pye - Brindie, Cooke (sub J. Lucescu 80th), J. Cullen - McGuinness, Griffiths (sub Jurina 8th), Wade.

MAKEDONIA: Kastner - Pirovski, Flavell, Higham, Beach - Faulkner, Ollerton, C. Lucchesi (sub Rainey 85th) - Cullen, McMillan, Ward.

Slavia stretched glamour side Makedonia to the limits but ball finishing failed the bottom-tiered team from pulling off what would have been the upset of the season.

But for the tremendous running and heart of Robert Cullen Makedonia could well have slipped up. However George McMillan bobbed up to score the decisive goal in the 47th minute.

Slavia defender Steve Wilson claimed after the match that McMillan had yielded "Leisure" with within reach of the referee but Slavia coach Tom Vrana, after supporting Sunshine keeper Peter Clarke's claim, pointed out that his defender should still have cleared the ball from inside the area.

Makedonia coach Brian Edgley was satisfied with the debut of Peter Ollerton who played in midfield in an adventurous role.

Ljube Petrovski went to right back and Mike Balmer replaced Claude Lucchesi, much to the ire of the Macedonian supporters, and took over at right back with Petroski moving into midfield.

Two minutes later Juventus struck back and Fabio Incalupato, playing due to Tony Heery's late arrival at the match, found himself unmarked in the middle of the Croydon area and although Sean Keogh narrowed the angle the Juvenile star tucked his chance away well.

The game continued its run of high-octane football and missed a sister early on while the main culprit for Slavia was Mick McGowan who spoiled his impressive display by his failure to convert his good play into goals.

In the 51st minute McGowan blasted a 20 metre drive onto the crossbar.

SUNSHINE 0 GEORGE CROSS 1 (Mizzi)

SUNSHINE: Clarke - Scarlett, Musser, Ellis, Donohoe, Sturman, McNaughton, Esposito (sub McNaughton 7th), Latinis (sub McNaughton 7th), Pocock, McRobert.

GEORGE CROSS: Ames - Noonan, Williams, Ballantyne, Martin - Zabala, Castriota, Mizzi, Morgan (sub Vtli 75th), Pollock, Papamis.

George Cross ran out worthy winner in a game that saw the visitors to Chaplin Reserve creating more scoring opportunities, but the agility of Sunshine keeper Peter Clarke, especially in the first half, prevented Cross from going in at the break with a healthier lead.

The decisive goal came in the 25th minute when a goal-mouth scramble developed after a Cross error.

The ball finally fell to Cross midfielder Ray Mizzi, about 12 yards out and he unleashed a fierce drive that gave Clarke no chance.

Sunshine players complained to referee Jim Dixon that Clarke was pushed when the corner came over but their pleadings were ignored by the referee and the goal was allowed to stand.

Cross won a midfield where Mizzi marked Wilf Laing, allowing Tony Castiello and Tony Zeigler to generate his forward move.

At the back both defences did well with few clear-cut chances failing to either team.

GREEN GULLY 0 ALTONA 1 (Little)

GULLY: Denys - Smart, Dunne, Patten, Crilly (sub Segi half time) - Vojtek, Morris, Vassallo - Perkins, Dennis, Morley.

ALTONA: van der Poel - Lewis, Cannell, Gramberger, Wilson - Watters (sub Kelly 52nd), Little, Whyte - Crewe, Farmer, Innes.

Altona showed tremendous character and 100% effort in knocking off top-four team Green Gully at Gully Reserve last weekend.

Altona coach Joe Wilson celebrated his birthday by leading his side to a win that Wilson saw as a turning point in Altona's fortunes.

"I was proud of the way the lads played," said Wilson, "and I just wish that we could get more credit in the press instead of being labelled simply a hard, physical side."

"We've been playing some great football recently without getting results but I reckon the tide has turned in our favor with this win."

The all-important goal came in the 25th minute after Gully failed to effectively clear an Altona corner which eventually ran to John Little whose first-time shot past a crowded goalmouth sailed onto the back of the Gully goal with Lou Denys having no chance to save.

YOUTH REPORT

from

COCA-COLA BOTTLERS

Nicolaides set for big time

South Melbourne Hellas has an exciting midfielder whose stay at the club places the veteran tag around his youthful shoulders.

Socrates Nicolaides started with Hellas in 1971 when he was 10 years old and played in the Hellas Under-11's.

This was the springboard for a successful career which saw Nicolaides represent Victoria at Under-14, 16 and 18 levels while his flourishing talents carried him through the junior ranks and into the Hellas PSL squad when he was only 15.

"Soc" as he is affectionately known, remembers his first team call up vividly.

"I was told by phone on a Friday that I was on the bench for the team's game at Essendon."

"I will never forget the thrill of being with these stars in the dressing room and being introduced to Alan Evans and shaking hands with the first team players."

"To tell you the truth I was scared to death and I didn't even want to go onto the field."

"I really thought that this year was going to be my big chance of breaking into the first team but it was a series of many great players in the side."

"But I am only 17 and there is a lot in front of me. I love the club and I will get there in the end."

Nicolaides is a member of the Australian youth squad and can recall the thrill of being selected along with the disappointment caused by a major injury.

Utd. tops table

Moe United, winner of last year's Champion of Champions competition in the Latrobe Valley Junior leagues is carrying all before it in the under-11 competition this year.

As under-10's the United lads won last year's section two before defeating section one winner Fortune by 5-0 in the champions final.

So far the same lads are undefeated this year and are five points ahead of their nearest rivals so they are well on the way toward repeating their 1979 success.

Hellas youngster Socrates Nicolaides (right) pictured savouring the thrill of PSL competition as Russo of Adelaide City closes him down.

able as anyone but I must mention something about my toughest opponent Jim Patikas.

"He's fast, agile and has good vision and he can turn sharply."

Nonetheless Nicolaides did a good marking job on Patikas in the youth curtain raiser to the Australia-Northern Ireland game in Melbourne recently.

So what does the future hold for this promising youngster?

"Well my immediate aim is to get into the Hellas first team but in the long term I want to play for Australia at senior level."

"I think that there is a place for me in the youth team as a defensive midfielder laying off the back four and building up play from deep."

"I think that the squad is fairly settled so I can get down to the task of establishing myself in the first eleven."

"I am so keen to make the side that nothing will stop me from giving my all to achieve selection." — CRAIG MACKENZIE

The full squad is: John Petropoulos (Ashwood H.S.); Alex Amici (Strathmore

Schoolboys look strong

The Victorian under 18 schoolboy squad was selected after two trials on 19 and 26 June at Royal Park.

The trials were well attended and the standard was high with 60 boys attending both sessions.

The Australian Championships will be held at Wollongong, NSW, from 25 to 29 August and there is a strong possibility that the tournament will be televised.

Selection of the Victorian team was an arduous and testing task due to the quality and number of boys available, however a final squad of 15 boys was selected along with four reserves.

The full squad is: John Petropoulos (Ashwood H.S.); Alex Amici (Strathmore

2SM aids youth

There is little doubt that soccer is the fastest growing sport in Australia.

In a country dominated by two other football codes, Rugby League and Australian Rules, it would appear that Soccer is fast catching on and thousands of youngsters around the country are now taking part in what is the most universal football game in the world.

In keeping with the support given to Rugby League in the Commonwealth Cup, Sydney radio station 2SM has injected a boost to schoolboy soccer by sponsoring the 2SM under 15 Cup.

The competition, open to all metropolitan schools in the Sydney area offers more than $3,000 in prizes and an opportunity for the sport to grow and develop even further.

Schoolboy soccer is run in age groups up to 18 years, then it's Amateur League, Premier League and then finally the Federation team.

Thousands play the game each Saturday around the country.

Coaching clinics have proved to be popular, and from all indications soccer will soon be the biggest participant football game in the country.

The 2SM under 15 Cup is now under way with the finals to take place in September. The station believes it has to do more than give out the scores in sport.

2SM's under 15 Cup is investment in the interest and development of youth and their sport in Australia.

West is still second best

ADELAIDE CITY 1 (Metia 50th) WEST ADLAIDE 0 at Olympic Sports Field. Crowd: 4560. Escort Cup, first leg.

CITY: Marshall 9-, Jones 8, Russell 7, B. Nyskohus 7 - Muniz 8, Metia 8, Beir 7 - J. Nyskohus 7, Barnes 6, Mitchell 8.

WEST: Crook 9 - Maricic 7, Topaz 7, Forte 6, Metia 7 - Carruthers 8, Honeyman 7, Bozanic 8 - McGregor 8 (Ateles), Manocas 7, Norris 7.

Adelaide City's dominance over West Adelaide continued last Sunday with a 1-0 decision in the first leg of the domestic Escort Cup at Olympic Sports Field.

Sergio Metia's 50th minute right-foot drive separated the sides. The return leg will be played at Hindmarsh Stadium at the end of the season.

City opened up impressively and had West's defence in all sorts of trouble.

It wasn't until the 18th minute that City goalkeeper Peter Marlowe had the ball.

But from that point, West streamed forward and was desperately unlucky not to score.

First Vic Bozanic saw a good shot deflected by Marshall and he followed that up with a super 30-metre drive which cannoned off the crossbar.

Earlier City had all the near misses, the most glaring in the first minute when Colin Barnes drove a firm shot just wide of the far post.

City grabbed the only goal of the match five minutes after the restart when the ball was touched by Metia from a free kick and the young midfielder lashed a great shot past Crook who until then was unbeatable.

Indeed both Crook and Marshall played brilliantly and presented at least four goals between them.

Marshall's best save came in the 58th minute when Graham Norrie gilded a brilliant angled header from an Eric Carruthers free kick.

Marshall tipped the ball over the bar with a back-breaking twist.

West was forced to play without John Kosmina (ankle) while City was without John Perlom (chest complaint). — MENO TOUT-SIDIS

Brighton now top

Tasmanian report
by Reg Tolputt and David Martin

Two games were postponed in the 10th round of the Radio Rentals State League this week.

Robert Juventus v Rapid West Pt., and Georgetown v Croatia Glenorchy were both postponed due to rain sodden pitches.

Brighton became the new leaders of the State League after its 2-1 victory over Launceston Juventus.

White Eagles are on the bottom of the league for the first time since the State League started three seasons ago, and Ulverstone wins its first game of the season by defeating Devonport 2-1.

White Eagles 1, Burnie Utd 3.

Two goals in the two minutes gave White Eagles an almost impossible task against Burnie Utd at the Athletic Centre.

Kendrick scored a fine goal for the Northeners to open the scoring when his 25m shot left Michneski stranded on his line and just 45 seconds later, Ray Parker's shot rebounded off Michneski from four feet out in goal from both Mick Brazil, the new signing from Richmond (Vic) and Michneski were at fault.

After the initial flurry of goals both teams settled down and there were few chances to score, although both Eastley (Burnie) and Cook (Eagles) missed golden chances, and they went in at half time with the score 2-0.

Referee Bas Masters had his hands full in an aggressive second half with both Glover (Burnie) and Smith (Eagles) being sent off and Buchanan, Considine and Krambuanos all being booked.

Kendrick and Charles both went close to scoring for Burnie and Eastley, who had a good game for the Northeners, was stopped from scoring only when he was brought down by Lescenski with only the goalkeeper to beat.

Frank Letic, on loan from Croatia, had his shot blocked on the line by Buchanan, and finally Linnell pulled one back for the Eagles in the 41st minute. But Burnie got further ahead three minutes later when Brazil's mistimed backpass to the keeper gave Charles the easiest of goals.

Brighton ICL 2 Launceston Juventus 1

Andy Heap will not forget this game for a long time. He scored two goals within a minute, hit the bar when he had an open goal and was taken off the field after colliding with Guest of Juventus.

• Port Melbourne was formed in 1969 and the first president of the club was Phillip Soldatos. The club relied then, as now, upon the local Greek community for support. In 1971 Port Melbourne won the District League championship and the following year made a successful application to join the Provisional League. The club's honours are Division Four champion (as East Melbourne) 1974; Third Division Runner-up 1977; Cumberland Cup semi-finalist 1975; Port Melbourne has provided Greek soccer with players such as Jim Alexiou of Aris Salona and Peter Banatas, now with Kavala. Port Melbourne looks to the future with confidence and it has no fears about being relegated from Division Two this year.

Caludio "Groovy" Ditto . . . Don't Cry For Me Argentina 4-3.

West Melbourne 4 — Central City 3

Cuando desde estas páginas le pedimos que juega para el equipo y no para la tribuna lo hicimos porque sabíamos que el domingo que lo hiciera era "tapa" en el GRÁFICO. En el TOORAK PARK, brilló como muestra el talento de un gran jugador que hizo llorar de emoción a su tribuna y le dio a su equipo un triunfo HERMOSO. Juguendo para los dos equipos y tribuna CLAUDIO "GROOVY" DITTO con pinceladas de artista fue el mejor hombre DEL MEJOR PARTIDO DE FUTBOL QUE HE VISTO EN AUSTRALIA. El CENTRAL CITY merecía el aplauso y el reconocimiento mientras que el WEST MELBOURNE como nunca será el representante en Australia de un futbol que siendo pasión, sentimiento y arte, ENGRUJULUCE. Hoy nos titula de SOCCER ACTION pibe, LO MERCEZ. WEST MELBOURNE: CISTERNA-ARRIBOLA-NAVARR O-(c)-MOYANO-SUAREZ-DITTO-HUIZ-REFUGIOS (LAGOS)-HIMSWORTH (LUCCINI)-GARCIA-CALOMINO. A los 12 minutos del primer tiempo el WEST MELBOURNE perdió 2 a 0. Terminó el primer tiempo 2 a 2. Faltando un minuto para terminar se empata 3 a 3. Se ganó 4 a 3. GOLES: 1) GARCIA, el Chueco llega a un rebote del tiro libre de MOYANO, Golazo. 2) ESPANTOSO, Calomino (que jugó el mejor partido del a Ho) se la pone a la entrada de DITTO como número 8, tres hombres en el camino, Golazo. 3) Jugada en el área del CHU ECO GARCIA, hermosa pelota, entra otra vez en el andarivel del 8, dos rivales en el camino y DITTO concreta el 3 a 3. TERRIBLE.

4) ESCALOPHANTE, Roba el CAU DILLO en el medio y la "corta" para la entrada como número 10, a 25 metros del arco, DITO DEJA CINCO HOMBRES EN EL CAMINO, se frenó frente al portero, SE LE CORTE LA RESPIRACIÓN HASTA EL REFERI, la puso abajo, LLORABAMOS COMO PIBES.....

Los GAUCHOS jugaron de igual a igual a un rival de juego demoler y de clase. CENTRAL CITY, es un equipo de "Jujo" MIGUEL "GALLITO" CIFUENTES debería desempeñar la chequera y traer el número 9 de los griegos para el WEST MELBOURNE. Ud. no sabe lo que pasaría. Aun perdiendo era el equipo que mandaba en el campo y se perdía, porque el número 9, ES UN FENÓMENO. I le hizo dos GOLAZOS a un KUNY CISTERNA que jugó el mejor partido del campeonato. Pero quizás ahí esté la clave REPOSOS en el primer tiempo, SUAREZ, HUIZ, MOYANO, GARCIA y CALOMINO jugaron en forma brillante, gran segundo tiempo de "MALVINAS" HIMSWORTH y una actuación para el recuerdo de CLAUDIO "GROOVY" DITTO. Bien ARREBOLA, nuevo marcando la punta, y HACHA BRAVA NAVARRO dejando el alma, jugó evidentemente lastimado.

LAGOS y LUCHINI entraron a un partido que estaba al "rojo" y cumplieron. Erros que pudo ser fatal el cambio INEXPLICABLE del inglés "MALVINAS" HIMSWORTH SUAREZ y NAVARRO estaban lesionados, y si alguno debía salir NO HABIA MAS CAMBIOS. ALAN "MALVINAS" HIMSWORTH, se reca jugando tranquilo, "SIN EL PANTASMA" de salir. Remontando, un triunfo sensacional, que pone a los GAUCHOS en la cima y ACARICANDO LA PUMA, PROXIMA FECHA: Stman y siguen ganaron 3 a 2. GAUCHOTISSSSSS PROXIMA FECHA: Se inicia la segunda rueda, el WEST MELBOURNE tiene un partido pendiente contra el PASCOE VALE, y al final del campeonato estos dos puntos serían importantes. VISITANTES contra el MITCHELL UNITED, en un hermoso parque para toda la familia. TERRERA RD. VERMONT SOUTH-MELWAY-62-J/7. Por favor que no falte el "bombo" ni las banderas, los GAUCHOS mas que FUTBOL...SON UNA HERMOSA EXPRESIÓN DEPORTIVA...NO FALTE...

Superados por el invicto del campeonato, LOS CHAVALAS sin jugar mal, no pudieron contar a un YARRAVILLE que esta primera porque es un gran equipo. Vamos, que un tropezón no es caída. ADELANTE... YARRAVILLE S.C.: POIS-P. CALLE-LOCKLEY-MONTES LEON-GUIMARES-PITAS-ORTIZ-LETTRAN-J. CALLE (c)-SAZ. El equipo español salió a jugar a la defensiva, con solo dos hombres de ataque y buscando en el "pelotazo" para CALLE o SAZ, el gol. Poco para inquietar a un equipo que vale y lo demuestra cada dominguito.

RESERVAS:ja gran alegría de cada domingo.GANARON los CHAVALINES...3 a 1.

PROXIMA FECHA: Visitas en BRUNSWICK, Balfe Park en JOHN ST

JUGANDO BIEN, pero desesperando a pesar de ganar y dominar LOS CHAVALAS pierden, en un partido que se les da vuelta. Mucho nervio.SERENIDAD BO TIJAS...Uds, valen y lo han demostrado...DEVER LOS NERVIOS en casa y ESCUCHEN AL TE CNICO,,pongan el CORAZON URU GUATO, pero LA CAREZA INGLESA RESERVAS: En gran campaña, si quieren ganando LOS BOTIJITAS.

3 a 0 y dando espectáculo.

ZIKA NIKOLIC

NAVECA POSETA OVE SEZONE

Veliko rivalstvo South Melbourne i Heidelberg povratio je ugled nogometu fantastinom posetom na Olympic Parku. Medjunic, rezultat ove utakmice sahranio je nadu da će Melbourne ove godine dati prvi put privaka Philips ligu.

JUST je iskoristio neocekivani odmor da odigra trening utakmicu sa Altonom Gate. Trener Rocco Ille je dao priliku mladima da pokazuju mogucnosti, sto ovi nisu najbolji iskoristili. Verovatno, zato sto su dan ranije imali test utakmicu.

Iduci vikend "plavi" gostuju u Brisbanu, gde ih docekule ambijentne Lione, kojih je priceno lako i ubedljivo svladali u Melburnu na pocetku sezone. Od tada se je doista stvari dogodilo, tako da se ovdoh snaga ova dvaja kluba izjednacio. Medutim, opilja klima je uvec vise godišnje JUST-ovim igrama, pa moze biti ovog puta odlicujući faktor.

MRSAVE POBEDE

Ocekivalo se da Croatia i Makedonija prosle nedjelje poprave svoju gol razliku, jer su igrali protiv kandidata za ispadanje iz drzavne lige. Medutim, sretno su izvukli bodove. Silvija je sasa mladim timom prikazala lepusu igru, stvorila zrelite sanje, ali je moralna da pomire sa porazom. Jedini gol je postigao George McMillan, a sansu je izradio stari klasa Peter Ollerion, koji je prvi put nastupio za Makedoniju. Ali njegov prvi nastup mogao je i skupo da kosti, ali srecom sudija je zazurio kada je u svom kaznenom prostoru igrao rukom.

OSTALI REZULTATI

ALTONA GATE — BOX HILL 1:0 (0:0). Jedini gol je postigao bronzove Cele Tasevski, koji je do omdora sedeo na klupi za rezervne igrače. Pobedi Altona Gate je potpuno zasluzena, jer je jedino daleko zrelije sanje od gostiju. Sa ovom pobedom Altona Gate se prvi put odjelila od opasne zone, ali opasnost nije potpuno pronašla.

J.U.S.T. — HELLIAN 3:3 (3:0). Po drugi put ove sezone "plavi" zavrsavaju utakmicu sa podjelom bodova, lako su ubedljivo vodili u prvom poluvremenu. Nedostatak iskustva i stabilnosti, zbg cestim promena trenera, dovode do ovih negativnih rezulta. Ne same protiv Helasa, vec na svakoj utakmici "plavi" momci igraju dobro samo do odmora, a posle toga izgubile glavu i gube dobleblju utakmicu. To je već preslo u navuku, koja se ne moze take lako iskoristiti. Strelići za JUST: Bruno Cossella, Tom Karlic i Jim Klaris je izdajao istraza rezerve. Rezerve: JUST — Helles 1:2 (1:1).

"Plavi" su igrali, a protivnici su davao golove. Zajista je stao ovi momci nemaju bar jednog strelica, toliko sansi majmu, a svaku igru napuste pognuti glava. Jedini gol je postigao Dusko Atanasovski.

CARLTON/SRBIE — THOMASTOWN 1:1 (1:1). Srbija je 1:0 majstorskim golom Ljube Stanjanovicu u 32. minuti. Medutim, srbija je trajala svega petce minuta i je prelaska u izjednacivo. Rezultat odgovaraju igrači, lako su gosti bili nešto bolji u polju. Poseta je bila nezadovoljstvo, lako je vreme bilo trudno i hindje. Naibolji igrači su Dragan Milisavljevic, Aleksandar Ristic i Zoran Krnic. Srbija je sacuvala prvo mesto sa jednim bodom prednosti ispred Thomastowna, koji je ostao glavni i jedini rival za naslov prvaka. Iduće subote Carlton igra nas derbi protiv Hawkswortha, koji je bio slobodan preste subote. Rezerve: Carlton/Srbija — Thomastown 2:4 (2:0). Strelići Slavko Drlić i Drago Vujic.

CENTRAL ALTONA/SLOGA — UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE 4:1 (2:0). Pvi put na svom novom igralistu (Lalor Technical School) Sloga je zasluzen i ubedljivo pobedila borbe protiv protivnika. Iako vreme nije bilo najbolje, teren bio idealan za igru. Strelići za Central Altonu: Ljubo Iljević, Cano Najdovski, Vasko Stojcevski iz jedanaestera i autogol. Rezerve: Central Altona — University 0:1.

ALTONA UNITED/VOJVODINA — MONBULK 6:2 (3:1). Vojvodina je postigla visoku pobedu, iako je igrala lezernu, sto su gosti iskoristili da dva puta smanje rezultat. Strelići: Dragisa Pantelic, Adam Miller 2 i Janko Gedelevic 2. Bojli od ostalih bili su: Zlatko Lacoč, Jovan Čanković i Žarko Stefanović. Dne neđelje Vojvodina igra protiv Yarravillea u svom igralistu. Rezerve: Vojvodina 1:1. Jedini gol je postigao Alex Hill.

BOSNA — LABANA ENGLIS 0:0. Tekst ističe, lako je Bosna imala vise od igre, ali nije uspeo svoju nadmetnost da krunise bar jednim golom. Nekritinski trezatnik bio je u 55. minuti, kada je Raden Colic spasio gol Bosne, iako je protivnicki igrač sutradan sa dva metara. Naibolji igrači Bosne: Ljubomir Brajić, Adam Susić i Jozo Plšak. Iduće nedjelje Jugo-derbi u Dingley: Springvale Utid, (Bratstvo/Jedinstvo) — Bosna.

PARKMORE/PLAVI DUNAV — CRANBOURNE 23:3 (1:1). Domaci je bili najbolji pobedi, koju je zaslužio, ali nije imao sreće. Strelići za Plavi Dunav: Mihail Djarmatić iz jedanaestera i Greg Kawnmeyer. Rezerve: PLAVI DUNAV — Cranbourne 3:0 (2:0). Strelići: Tibor Tot 2 i Iván Makal mladij.

BRATSTVO/JEDINSTVO "A" — North Richmond 7:1 (2:0). Strelići: Dragoslav Jelić 3, Milenko Culibrk 3, Stevan Belurov 1. Laka i zaslužena pobeda Springvale Uniteda, koja je mogla biti dočvrcena da teren nije bio blatinjav i klijav. Naibolji igrači: Dragoslav Jelić, Milenko Culibrk i Enes Alepovic.

PARKMORE/HAJDUK — SPRINGVALE UNITED "B" 5:0 (3:0). Bilo je svega viseg nešto sporta, tako da je Springvale Utid, HEDGES DRAFTING — TARAX 1:2 (0:0). Sa ovom pobedom Tarax je usao u certifičane Black Douglas Kupa, koje je osvojio dva puta usastope. "Plavi" su zasluženo pobedili; jer su savladali svojim sportskim ponasanjem i znanjem nezgodnih pravilnika, koji je potpuno zaboravio na postopljivost i vitesko držanje. Strelići sa Tarax: Tim Bliski i Ibro Hadžibabić. Naibolji igrači: Frank Milić, Sandor Kazl, Andrew Kazl i Ibro Hadžibabić d.c.
